

OAK POLAR WHITE

Oak Polar White is a clean and modern pale floor which provides the perfect foundation for a pared-back 'Scandinavian' design scheme.

With a light and even look it is far from stark and still exudes a natural feel. Choosing a 'select' grade of timber can further emphasise the minimal aspect of this floor, but it is also available in rustic versions if the required look is more natural and homely.

These floors are often the choice of architects looking to match the majestic Douglas Fir, but who require a durable floor with low maintenance requirements.
